

Full time Nurse RN/LPN

Help keep your community safe by preventing disease, promoting health, and assisting others to stay in the comfort of their own home by providing compassionate care as a Public Health Nurse. Iowa County Health Department has a family friendly work schedule, with excellent retirement and health benefits.

Location: Marengo, IA

Schedule: Full time

Normal business hours: Monday-Friday, 8:00am-4:00pm

Starting wage: based on experience; mileage reimbursed $0.70/mile

Responsibilities

- Uses clinical knowledge and nursing skills to provide direct patient care in a home setting
- Delivers quality care and completes accurate clinical documentation in accordance with home health conditions of participation (CoPs)
- Educates patients and families on healthcare needs, treatments, and care strategies established in the plan of care
- Documents patient progress, including observations, changes in condition, and medication administration, in compliance with agency protocols
- Collaborates and communicates effectively with the healthcare team

Qualifications

- Current Iowa RN or LPN license, CPR, Mandatory Reporter
- Preferred candidates have at least 1 year of nursing experience
- Good organizational skills to manage time without supervision
- Detail oriented and able to multitask efficiently
- Ability to make independent decisions
- Contribute to a productive work environment with all team members
- Electronic charting experience and basic computer skills required
- Must have reliable transportation and valid driver's license

How to apply

- Email resume and cover letter to ICHD@iowacounty.iowa.gov
- Call (319) 741-6422 for additional information